Verbatim 70723 headphones/headset Wired Head-band USB Type-A:

The Verbatim Stereo Headset with Microphone and In-Line Remote combines superior sound quality, lasting comfort and versatile functionality that make it perfect for plug-and-play use in a variety of applications.

The headset's ergonomic design features an adjustable headband with soft foam covers on the earpads for long-lasting comfort.

The flexible microphone is easy to bend and position for optimal speaking quality, designed to be worn on either the right or left side, and spins up and out of the way when not in use.

An in-line remote control enables you to adjust the volume, answer and end calls and turn the sound or microphone on and off. An LED indicator also light ups to show when the microphone is muted.
